

Southwestern Journal of International Law

www.swlawjournal.org

The Southwestern Journal of International Law offers symposia to provide a scholarly forum on selected comparative, international and trade law issues. Articles written in coordination with the symposia will be published in the Journal. Copies of the issue will be sent to participants and will also be available for purchase by calling the Journal Office at (213) 738-6857.

The Journal is published twice each year, featuring a combination of professional articles and student notes and comments concerning emerging developments in international law.

For a one-year subscription to the Journal, please complete this form and mail it, along with a check (payable to Southwestern Law School) for the proper amount, to the address below.

JOURNAL OF INTERNATIONAL LAW

In an effort to accurately reflect changes in the global legal landscape, the Southwestern Journal of Law and Trade in the Americas was renamed the Southwestern Journal of International Law as of the 2008-2009 academic year. The Journal broadened its scope, publishing scholarly articles relating to international, comparative and foreign law issues.
